FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

WHAT SKILLS CAN I LEARN THROUGH YOUR TRAINING?

RW360 training integrates the principles of relational wisdom (biblical emotional intelligence), relational peacemaking, coaching, shepherding and Christian conciliation.

WHERE SHOULD I START MY TRAINING?

All of RW360’s training is based on two required foundational courses: Discovering Relational Wisdom and Relational Peacemaking. You may complete these two courses in either order and then proceed with higher levels of training.

HOW DO YOU DEFINE THESE SKILL SETS?

Relational Wisdom®, in essence, is the desire and ability to obey Jesus’ command, “You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart ... and love your neighbor as yourself”

TRAINING OVERVIEW AND FAQs

(Matt. 22:37-39). RW combines the gospel, the wisdom-principles of Scripture and our God-given capacity for emotional intelligence into a discipleship paradigm for developing skills that strengthen relationships and prevent conflict (dig deeper here).

Relational Peacemaking[®] is a practical theology for resolving conflict and reconciling people. This training integrates relational wisdom with the peacemaking principles taught in Ken Sande's book, The Peacemaker, which has sold over 500,000 copies in 20 languages and is organized under four key principles (the "4 G's"): Glorify God, Get the Log Out of Your Own Eye, Gently Restore and Go and Be Reconciled (dig deeper here).

RW Shepherding involves the application of RW, peacemaking, coaching and conciliation skills by church or ministry leaders. This training is especially relevant to church leaders, but is also useful to leaders in nonprofits, ministries, schools and businesses.

RW Coaching is a special form of "life coaching" that focuses on assisting other individuals to improve their relational skills in order to build stronger, deeper and more resilient relationships and to "get upstream of future conflict."

Conflict Resolution Coaching assists others to resolve existing conflicts personally and privately by applying the principles of relational wisdom and peacemaking.

Christian Conciliation is a process for resolving disputes between Christians in a biblically faithful manner. This process may involve conflict resolution coaching (advising individuals how to resolve a dispute personally and privately), mediation (meeting with both parties to improve understanding and facilitate a voluntary agreement) or arbitration (a trusted individual resolves a conflict by rendering a binding decision). These processes are described in detail in Guiding People Through Conflict.

WHERE CAN I APPLY THESE SKILLS?

You can apply these principles to strengthen relationships and resolve conflicts in all areas of life, including church leadership, the workplace, marriage and parenting, and legal disputes ... and then teach and assist others to do the same!

IS THIS TRAINING DESIGNED ONLY FOR PASTORS OR PROFESSIONALS?

No. Although pastors and other professionals can improve their skills and credentials through this training, all of our foundational and basic courses are designed to teach relational skills that can be applied by non-professionals in everyday life.

TRAINING OVERVIEW AND FAQs

WHAT ARE THE FOUR LEVELS OF YOUR TRAINING?

FOUNDATIONAL PERSONAL SKILLS TRAINING is designed to equip individuals to personally apply the principles of relational wisdom and peacemaking in their own families, churches and workplaces.

BASIC ASSISTING TRAINING is designed to equip individuals to assist others to learn and practice relational wisdom and peacemaking in their families, churches and work lives. This training is specifically designed for people who wish to serve on a church-based Peace Sower Team.

ADVANCED ASSISTING TRAINING is designed to equip pastors, church, ministry and nonprofit leaders and workplace managers with enhanced skills that improve their job performance and enable them to lead and serve others more effectively. This level of training also qualifies individuals to charge fees for some of these services.

CERTIFICATION TRAINING is designed to provide ongoing training and accountability for individuals who are serving as shepherds (spiritual leaders), instructors, coaches or conciliators several hours a month or on a professional level.

IS A “CERTIFICATE” THE SAME AS BEING “CERTIFIED?”

No. When you complete a course, you earn a “Certificate of Completion” for that particular course. “Certification” is a higher designation that is reserved for individuals who have completed several required courses, have demonstrated a genuine aptitude for shepherding, instructing, coaching or conciliation, and are practicing these skills several hours a month or on a professional basis).

WHAT IS A PEACE SOWER TEAM?

Peace Sower Teams lead church-based discipleship ministries comprised of shepherds, instructors, coaches and conciliators who use the principles of relational wisdom (RW) and peacemaking to equip and assist people in their church and community to build strong relationships and resolve conflict in ways that reveal the transforming power of Jesus and his gospel.

DO I NEED TO BE PART OF A PEACE SOWER TEAM TO PURSUE RW360 TRAINING?

No. Individuals may take all of RW360’s courses without joining a Peace Sower Team.

ARE THERE OTHER PREREQUISITES FOR RW360 TRAINING?

All assisting courses have prerequisites, which are given at the top of each course page.

WHICH TYPE OF ASSISTING TRAINING IS BEST FOR ME?

As illustrated by the flow chart at the beginning of this section, our training program is designed to allow you to complete different types and levels of training one course at a time, which allows you learn a variety of interrelated concepts and decide whether it would be useful for you to move on to another type or higher level of training.

If you are involved in church or ministry leadership, we suggest that you follow the RW Shepherd track, which will introduce you to a variety of ways that you can apply relational wisdom, peacemaking and conciliation in your ministry. This track also allows you to simultaneously complete most of the requirements for for a PACE Instructor Certificate or an Advanced Instructor Certificate, which you can obtain with a little extra work and no additional fee.

If your primary interest is to teach relational wisdom and peacemaking, you should follow the RW Instructor track.

If you desire to serve others as a coach or conciliator, you should pursue the RW Coach track, which includes prerequisite courses for the RW Conciliator track.

CAN I COMPLETE COURSES SIMULTANEOUSLY?

Yes. Some of the requirements for different courses overlap, so as you complete one course, you are often satisfying the requirements for other courses, which will allow you to obtain additional training certificates more quickly.

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE TO COMPLETE RW360 COURSES?

As indicated in the chart at the end of this section, some courses can be completed in as little as 8 hours, while others can take up to 46 hours. All courses are self-paced, so you can move through them at your own pace.

CAN YOUR TRAINING RESOURCES BE USED IN SECULAR SETTINGS?

Yes. All of our resources are grounded on biblical principles and are commonly used in church and ministry settings. Even so, we have developed a “values-based” version of our relational wisdom course (Exploring Relational Wisdom) so that it can be studied and taught in businesses, schools, hospitals, military bases, police departments and other secular settings, which can open the way for non-Christians to encounter the gospel (see RW and Evangelism).

Our Professional And Community Engagement \(PACE\) Program is designed to equip instructors to present 1-hour introductory seminars that are customized for specific secular audiences (general workplace, teachers, nurses, attorneys, public servants, law enforcement, military and college students). Although most of the content in these seminars is designed for secular audiences, the PACE materials provide opportunities for students to voluntarily encounter a Christian worldview and the gospel of Christ.

ARE THERE STUDIES THAT SHOW HOW THIS TRAINING CAN BENEFIT BOTH EMPLOYERS AND EMPLOYEES?

Yes. Studies have shown that this type of training produces more creative, loyal, fulfilled and productive employees who experience better career advancement. Employers can also see major benefits. As one study concluded, “When companies invest in the physical and relational wellness of their workers, returns on investment can range between $1.50 and $6.85 for every dollar spent on these types of programs.” (dig deeper)

TRAINING OVERVIEW AND FAQs

HAS YOUR TRAINING BEEN APPROVED FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION CREDIT?

Yes. Our relational wisdom training has been approved for continuing education for teachers, nurses, lawyers, counselors and social workers (see details here).

IS YOUR TRAINING AVAILABLE BOTH ONLINE AND LIVE?

Our foundational courses in relational wisdom and relational peacemaking are also available in video-based group study sets that can be used for Sunday school classes or live small group studies.

Live training is also available through our regional Relational Wisdom Summits, which provide opportunities for interactive cross-training designed to deepen insights, improve skills, build relationships and expand networks..

IS ALL OF YOUR TRAINING CURRENTLY AVAILABLE?

Therefore, we suggest that you complete one of our foundational courses on your own to make sure it is compatible with your organization’s values and goals. Better yet, invite a small group of others to join you in a study so that several people can testify to your organization’s leadership about the benefits of this training.

WHAT DO I DO IF I STILL HAVE QUESTIONS?

If you still have questions about our training, please feel free to seek more information by emailing us at mail@rw360.org or by calling 406-294-6806.

1. Cost covers registration fees and does not include cost of books. Since higher level courses require the completion of lower level prerequisites, the total investment for higher level courses is the sum of all the related costs and time requirements. For example, the combined cost for PACE Instructor training is $293 ($49+$49+$195).
2. Study hours are approximate and will vary from person to person. For example, although most people take about 10 hours to complete the Discovering Relational Wisdom course, others have invested 30 or more hours in the course as they read all of the additional optional articles and write longer answers to application questions.
3. Several courses have some of the same study requirements, so the time and cost to complete additional higher level courses is often less than indicated in this chart. For example, several hours of the time invested in a PACE Instructor Certificate also applies to the time required for a RW Instructor Certificate. Many of these hours would also apply to RW Shepherd and RW Conciliator training. Thus, the completion of higher level courses usually requires less time than indicated on the chart above

FOUNDATIONAL PERSONAL SKILLS TRAINING

Foundational Personal Skills Training is designed to equip individuals to personally apply the principles of relational wisdom and relational peacemaking in their own families, churches and workplaces. These two courses serve as prerequisite training for all of RW360's higher level courses.

DISCOVERING RELATIONAL WISDOM™ CERTIFICATE

Cost: $49 | Study Time: 10 hours

Relational wisdom (RW), in essence, is your ability to love God with all your heart and to love your neighbor as yourself ... in other words, RW is simply your ability to live out the two Great Commandments as summarized by Jesus in Matthew 22:37-39.

In modern terms, relational wisdom may be defined as a biblically-grounded, gospel-driven form of emotional intelligence that enables you to discern emotions, interests and abilities in yourself and others, to interpret this information in the light of God's Word, and to use these insights to manage your responses and relationships constructively.

One of the easiest ways to begin improving your relational wisdom is to go through RW360's online course, Discovering Relational Wisdom, which is available for $49 through the RW Academy. You can complete the course on your own, but studying with a spouse, friend or co-worker makes the training more enjoyable and life-changing.

Another way you could study these concepts is to lead an eight-week Discovering Relational Wisdom group study. Group study sets are available in both a faith-based \(Christian\) version, which is designed for Sunday school or a home study group, and a values-based \(secular\) version, which is designed for use in the workplace and other secular settings for professional development.

No special training is required to lead a group study since all of the actual teaching is provided by video (DVD or flash drive). As a moderator, your role is simply to host meetings (in person or by phone or video conferencing), play the videos and lead discussions using the application questions in the course materials.

You can use these resources to teach relational wisdom to every person in your church, ministry or business as a way to strengthen relationships, improve unity and teamwork and equip people with skills that enable them to "get upstream of conflict."

This training will strengthen your ability to live out the peacemaking concepts of confession, repentance, correction, forgiveness, negotiation, mediation and arbitration to resolve conflicts in a way that honors God, promotes justice, restores relationships and, most importantly, demonstrates the reconciling power of the gospel.

One of the easiest ways to begin improving your peacemaking skills is to go through RW360's online course, Relational Peacemaking. You can complete the course on your own, but studying with a spouse, friend or co-worker makes the training more enjoyable and life-changing.

Another way you could study these concepts is to lead a twelve-week Relational Peacemaking group study. This study is currently available in a faith-based (Christian) version, which is designed for Sunday school or a home study group, and will eventually be available in a values-based (secular) version, which is designed for use in the workplace and other secular settings for professional development.

No special training is required to lead a group study since all of the actual teaching is provided by video (DVD or flash drive). As a moderator, your role is simply to host meetings (in person or by phone or video conferencing), play the videos and lead discussions using the application questions in the course materials.

You can use these resources to teach biblical conflict resolution to every person in your church, ministry or business to strengthen relationships, improve unity and teamwork and equip people with skills that enable them to "get upstream of conflict."
